                     |   The Delaware Valley College Equestrian Hunt Seat Team kicked off their 2006 fall season this past Sunday, October 15 at Worthmore Equestrian Center in Worton, MD. The show was co-hosted by the University of Pennsylvania and Rider University. Our riders worked hard to earn High Point Team of the show, edging ahead of the University of Delaware by 5 points. Congratulations to Equine Studies sophomore, Jennifer Rowe, who earned two blue ribbons and won a ride off to earn the title of High Point Rider at the first show!

                     |   Please congratulate the following riders who helped earn our first win of the season:
                     |   Emily Casali
                     |   Kerri Bender
                     |   Kaitlyn McLaughlin

                     |   Jennifer Rowe Devan McNamara
                     |   Casey Arbogast
                     |   Amanda Trauger
                     |   Diane Rogers

We're excited to continue our season on October 28th at West Chester University's show, which will be held at Hidden Fox Farm near Reading, PA.

Good luck to the DVCET western team, who kicks off their season this Sunday at the University of Delaware's show, held at Granite Springs Stables, as well as the DVC Dressage Team, who will compete in their first show of the season this Saturday at Cazenovia College.

The hunt seat equestrian team had it's first show this past Saturday, October 8, hosted by the University of Pennsylvania and Rider University here at the DVC Equestrian Center. I'm proud to report that we won the show, getting a great start to our 2005-2006 season! Also, please extend your congratulations to Jessica Yankus, a junior in Equine Studies; she was High Point rider of the show with two wins in novice on the flat and novice over fences. Thanks so much to all of you who came down to support the team in the rain! We certainly appreciated it. Please also extend your congratulations to the following riders who competed in the show, contributing to our first win of the season:

Rachel Church
Kristin Hummel
Kristin Rosinski
Kaitlyn McLaughlin
Emily Casali
Neva Giannini

Our show last weekend on October 15 was held at Red Wing Farm by Temple University. Our team was a close third behind the University of Pennsylvania and the hosting school, Temple. We did have three riders who tied for High Point rider of the day! Please congratulate the following three team members on their success: Emily Lantzsch, a junior in Large Animal and Dairy Science, Amanda Guralski, a freshman in Secondary Education, and Becky Ogg, a junior in Equine Studies.

DVC's Western Equestrian Team participated in the first 3 western shows of the season, which were hosted by Temple University and The University of Pennsylvania. The team was Reserve High Point Team for the first show, and High Point Team for the second and third shows. Whitney Eisentraut is leading the High Point Rider standings for the Region. We are currently in the lead for Western High Point Team, followed closely by the University of Delaware in Zone 3, Region 2 of the IHSA.

Our show this past Sunday, October 23rd, was held at Worthmore Equestrian Center in Worton, MD (owned by a DVC alumni!!!). Our team came in Reserve High Point team for the day, four points behind the University of Delaware. We had two of the three riders with two blue ribbons. They drew straws for title of High Point Rider and Reserve and Rachel Federico, a freshman in Equine Science and Management won the title. Jennifer Rowe, a freshman in Equine Studies was also a winner of two blue ribbons at the show. |

The hunt seat equestrian team had their fourth show of the season this past Sunday, October 30. The show was hosted by Washington College and was held at Worthmore Equestrian Center in Worton, MD. I’m pleased to report that we were High Point Team for the show over the University of Pennsylvania, who was second, and the University of Delaware, who was third. The riders did a wonderful job to pull through and win the show. After our fourth show, we are leading the IHSA Zone 3, Region 2 as the High Point Hunt Seat Team. I hope to bring you more good news after our next show (and the last show of the fall semester) which is November 19th at Briarwood Farm in New Jersey.

Please congratulate the following riders who contributed to our win on the 30th:

DVC's Western Equestrian Team participated in 2 western shows this past weekend, which were held in Delaware hosted by The University of Delaware. The team was Reserve High Point Team for the first show, and High Point Team in the second show. We are still in the lead for Western High Point Team, followed closely by the University of Delaware in Zone 3, Region 2 of the IHSA. Whitney Eisentraut is also leading the High Point Rider standings for the Region.

This Saturday, November 12, we will be hosting 2 western shows at the DVC Equestrian Center! We will be competing against teams from The University of Delaware, The University of Pennsylvania, Temple University, Washington College and Bucks County Community College. We will have Horsemanship classes, and also Reining classes. The show starts at 8:30 am and will end at around 4:30.

I am pleased to announce that the DVCET Western Horse Shows were a HUGE success this past Saturday at the DVC Equestrian Center! DVC tied for High Point Team in the first show, and was Reserve High Point Team in the second show. We are still in the lead for High Point Team over the University of Delaware!

I would like to thank both the English and Western Teams for their help. I would also like to thank the Equine Studies Department Faculty & Staff for their help and support!!! All of the other schools & coaches remarked on how smoothly and efficiently the show was held. This was only made possible because of everyone's teamwork & participation!

Please congratulate all the DVCET members for a great job this weekend!

DVC Hosted Hunt Seat Show
Equestrian Center

Thanks to those of you who stopped by to support the hunt seat equestrian team at the home show this past Sunday! I'm pleased to report that the show went very well and we received multiple compliments on our horses and facility. The team had another great show; we were High Point Team of the day, winning by 12 points. Two teams tied for Reserve High Point Team of the day, the University of Delaware and University of Pennsylvania.

One of our open riders, Melisa Voytershark, deserves congratulations for earning Reserve High Point rider of the day on Sunday, as well as leading the region as the current Cacchione Cup rider (which means she has the most points of all of the open riders in the region).

The hunt seat team is now leading the region by 38 points, which is the most significant lead that I've seen since coaching the team.

Please congratulate the following riders who helped to clinch another victory for the hunt seat team at Sunday's show:

Melisa Voytershark          Amy Siebert
Amanda Hall                Neva Giannini
Emily Casali               Allison Schulte
Andrea Held                Casey Arbogast
Jessica Yankus             Senise Santamaria
Becky Ogg                  Laura Wirth
Diane Rogers               Amanda Boyd
Heather Castor             Katie Mick
Allison Kopf               Jen Simmers
Noelle Lucchioni           Gia Ottaviano
Amanda Trauger             Danielle Puffer
Rebecca Spille             Claudia Good
Rebecca Rodriguez
I would also like to thank the hunt seat and western team members who helped run the show and the Equine Studies faculty and staff who helped make it possible for us to host the show here at DVC.

Rider hosted HUNT SEAT SHOW @ DelVal Equestrian Center

I'm excited to announce that the hunt seat team was High Point Team of the day again yesterday at the Rider University hosted show here at the DVC Equestrian Center. The team members all did a wonderful job helping to run the horse show and we received compliments again on our fabulous school horses and facility. Thanks to all of you who came down to show your support.

We also had the High Point Rider of the day, DVC senior, Melisa Voytershark. Please give her a big congratulations when you see her on campus!

Please also extend your congratulations to the following riders from yesterday's show:

UDel hosted HUNT SEAT SHOW @ C-Line Stables
Meet at security at 5:15am

I'm pleased to report that for the second year in a row, the DVC IHSA Hunt Seat Team finished the season as High Point Team! We won the region by approximately 30 points, which is a considerable lead. This is the first time ever for Delaware Valley College to win the region in both hunt seat and western and we're very excited about our success.
We also had the Cacchione Cup Rider (which is the High Point Rider of the region) for Zone 3, Region 2, DVC senior, Melisa Voytershark. This automatically qualifies Melisa to ride in the Cacchione Cup classes at the IHSA National competition the first week of May, so please extend your congratulations to her when you see her on campus.

Our last show of the season on Saturday, March 19th was a difficult one, hosted by the University of Delaware in Odessa, Delaware at C-Line Stables. The team pulled through as Reserve High Point team of the day to UDel and we had the High Point Rider of the day, Equine Studies freshman Kaitlyn McLaughlin!

Please also congratulate the following participants in the 3/19 show as you see them on campus:
Rebecca Rodriguez
Amanda Hall
Rebecca Spille
Katie Mick

award possible this season! High Point Team for both Hunter Seat & Western Teams, High Point Riders for both Hunter Seat & Western Teams and Coaches of the Year for both Hunter Seat & Western. DVC's Western Team won the region by 25 points over the Reserve High Point Team, Bucks County Community College and the Hunter Seat team won by 20 points over The University of Delaware. This is the first time that DVC's Western Team has accomplished this and the second year in a row for the Hunter Seat Team.

DVC also has the High Point Hunter Seat and Western riders for the year. DVC's Western Captain, Whitney Eisentraut ('06) has earned the title of "Zone 3, Region 2 IHSA / AQHA High Point Rider" for the second year in a row and will represent our Region at Nationals in May. Melisa Voytershark ('05) has earned the title of “Zone 3, Region 2 High Point Rider” and will represent the Region in the Cacchione Cup competition at Nationals in May. DVC's Western Coach, Joanne Coniglio ('94), has also earned the title of "Western Coach of the Year" and Cory Kieschnick has earned the title of "Hunter Seat Coach of the Year."

Now, DVC will send a team of riders (one from each class) to the Zone shows which are March 26 (Western Zones) in West Virginia and April 9 (Hunter Seat Zones) in New Jersey. If DVC's Western Team is the High Point Team at Zones, we will send the team on to the IHSA National Horse Show in May 2005, which is in Ohio. If DVC's Hunter Seat Team is High Point Team or Reserve High Point Team at Zones, we will send yet another team to Nationals!

Coaches Coniglio and Kieschnick are extremely proud of all riders! DVC also qualified several riders as individuals for the Regional competition.

Please congratulate all of the DVCET Team members in a successful season!

WESTERN ZONE SHOW in West Virginia
Good luck DVCET Western Team!!!

DVC's Western Equestrian Team competed this past weekend in the IHSA Zone 3 Championship Horse Show in West Virginia. For the first time in DVC Western Team history, I am extremely proud to announce that we have earned the title of 'Zone 3 High Point Team'! DVC competed in team classes against a strong team from West Virginia University. DVC won 4 out of the 6 team classes and now will be sending a team of riders on to Nationals in May! DVC also had 3 individuals qualify for Zones, and they all qualified for Nationals! Another first for the DVC Western Team! Nationals will be held at The Eden Park Equestrian Complex in Sunbury, Ohio from May 5-8, 2005. Please join me in congratulating the following riders in a job well done!

HUNT SEAT REGIONAL SHOW @ C-Line Stables
Regional Banquet in Delaware

I'm proud to announce that the hunt seat equestrian team has advanced 5 individual riders and one team to the Zone 3 Show on Saturday, April 9 at Briarwood Farm in New Jersey.

The Regional horse show at C-Line Stables this past Saturday, April 2, went very well and both the hunt seat and western teams received award after award at the Regional banquet on Saturday evening. Both the hunt seat and western teams received High Point Team of the 2004-2005 season and DVC's Melisa Voytershark and Whitney Eisentraut were High Point Riders for the season in Hunt Seat and Western. Both Joanne Coniglio and myself were named Western and Hunt Seat coaches of the year. Even one of our horses won an award! Pal, one of our favorite school horses here at the Equestrian Center received Best All Around Horse of the Year!

<td>I am proud to announce that the DVC hunt seat equestrian team placed Reserve in Zone 3 at the Zone Finals at Briarwood Farm in Readington, New Jersey on Saturday! As a result, the team advances to the IHSA National competition for the second year in a row! We are very excited about this opportunity to take both hunt seat and western IHSA teams to represent the college (a Delaware Valley College first!) and our IHSA Zone and look forward to bringing you good news after Nationals, which are being held this year in Sunbury, Ohio at Eden Park Equestrian Complex, May 5-8. When you see the following Zones team members and individual riders on campus, please extend your congratulations for their hard work and success:</td>

I'm excited to report that the DVC Equestrian Team had a very successful show at the IHSA Nationals in Sunbury, Ohio, May 5-8. The team had 13 riders who competed in hunt seat and western and a total of 22 rides. One hundred twenty-seven colleges and universities were represented with competing riders at the National Championships Show and there were only three with more rides than DVC- all big universities (Texas A&M, California State University, Fresno and the University of Findlay). We were proud to represent our college with so many competitors.

I'm pleased to announce that the hunt seat Collegiate Cup team earned 8th place overall in the competition! This is a major accomplishment and the riders and I are both extremely pleased with the result.

The western team placed 11th in the AQHA Trophy team competition, which was a very exciting result for their first trip to Nationals as a team.

Listed below are the riders who participated in the IHSA National Championships Horse Show. Please extend your congratulations to them if you see them on campus; their hard work and determination were rewarded and they were proud to represent Delaware Valley College this past weekend.
