

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

The application for admission is one of the first steps to joining the Delaware Valley University community. Delaware Valley University uses a rolling admissions policy, which means we do not have an application deadline and are continuously receiving and reviewing admission applications. Students are encouraged to submit their application as early as possible. Applications should be completed in ink or typed. After receiving your completed admissions application and all necessary paperwork, we make every effort to notify you of your admissions decision within two to three weeks.
