

Doctoral Courses: Important Academic Dates

Please note that doctoral drop and withdrawal dates are course specific because the start date of each course is different within the term offered.

- Dropping a course: Doctoral students are permitted to drop a course up until the first Saturday meeting. If the student attends the first Saturday meeting they are not permitted to drop the course and must withdraw.
- Withdrawing from a course: Doctoral students may withdraw from a course through the second weekend session. This will be reflected on the transcript with a grade of “W”.
